TIMOTHY STILL

1920-1968

METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH
32-34 PRINCE STREET, NEWARK, N. J.

July 18, 1968

THE REV. B. F. JOHNSON, Pastor
DR. L. SYLVESTER ODOM, Officiating

"Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends."

TIMOTHY STILL

TIMOTHY STILL was born in Dothan, Alabama, February 29, 1920, to Carrie and Albert Still. He was one of five children brought to Newark, New Jersey at a very early age where he attended various schools in the city. A winner of the National Golden Gloves in 1941, he boxed professionally until 1947.

His civic work began when he was elected President of the Hayes Homes Tenants Association in 1955. He served in that capacity until 1965. He was named Honorary Chairman in recognition of his services by the Hayes Homes Tenants Association. He served as District Leader of the Central Ward's 21st District and as Executive Secretary of the Irvine I. Turner Association. He was a member of the Board of the Urban League of Essex County, Vice President of the Fuld Neighborhood House, Chairman of the West Kinney Junior High School Scholarship Fund. He was part time District Secretary to Congressman Joseph Minish and a Consultant to the Newark Housing Authority. He was selected "Volunteer of the Year" by the United Community Fund. Shortly before his untimely death he was elected to serve a second term as President of the United Community Corporation. He received the Honorary Degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, from Rutgers University at the commencement exercises, sharing honors with Rutgers President Mason W. Gross, U.N. Secretary General U Thant, and with U.S. Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall.

Dr. Timothy Still is survived by his wife, Naomi and three children, Timothy, Jr., 24, Carol Gwendolyn, 21, and Vincent, 18; by his mother, Mrs. Carrie Still, by his two sisters, Mrs. Mary Jones and Mrs. Mildred Leak, and by his two brothers, Mr. Thomas Still and Mr. Harold Still.

Quiet Moments — Dr. L. Sylvester Odom
(Meditation and Prayer)
Invocation — Msgr. ~~Thomas Carey~~ Joe Darby
Collect (Unison) O heavenly Father, thy word is a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path; we humbly beseech thee that thou wouldest be pleased to open and enlighten our minds, through Jesus Christ, who is the true light of the world, that we may understand thy word in its plainness and purity, and frame accordingly the whole course of our lives; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Canticle of the Word (Response)

How lovely are thy messengers, O lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and a longing for thy word.

Thou sendest forth thy prophets in every age, and thy truth runneth swiftly to the ends of the earth.

The pure in heart have seen thee, O God: the lowly have found thee near at hand.

These tell of thy lovingkindness: from the rising of the sun to the going down of the same they keep not silence;

Publishing peace upon the mountains, and bringing good tidings of great joy,

That thou art blessed forever, and in thy will is our peace.

Thou art the everlasting fountain of life, and they that drink thereof shall thirst no more;

Light of our seeing and soul of our souls, with in all spirits and beyond all worlds,

Who sustainest the heavens with the might of thy power, and gladdenest the eyes of all living withthe beauty of thy holiness,

That the children of men behold thy glory, and see thy wonders in the great deeps.

The Litany of Appreciation

Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand the spirits of the living and the dead, Light of lights, Fountain of wisdom and goodness, who livest in all pure and humble and gracious souls; For all who have witnessed a good confession for thy glory and the welfare of the world, patriarchs, prophets, and apostle, the wise of every land and nation, all teachers and preachers of thy truth,

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD, AND BLESS THY NAME.

(14)

For the martyrs of our holy faith, the faithful witnesses to Christ of whom the world was not worthy, and for all who have resisted falsehood and wrong unto suffering of death

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD, AND BLESS THY NAME.

For all who have labored and suffered for freedom for good government, just laws, and the sanctity of the home, and for all who have given their lives for their country.

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD, AND BLESS THY NAME.

For all who have sought to bless men by their service and life, and to lighten the dark places of the earth.

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD, AND BLESS THY NAME.

For those who have been tender and true and brave in all times and places, for those who have been devoted ministers and faithful shepherds of souls in thy holy Church, and for all who have been one with thee in the communion of Christ's Spirit and in the strength of his love,

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD, AND BLESS THY NAME.
